

Regional farmers selling beef in bulk

Nelson County:

Harned Ranch: Black angus beef born, fed and finished on the ranch with no hormones or antibiotics. Cattle are fed and checked daily by riders on horseback in a very slow, calm environment. Beef sold in wholes, halves and quarters. USDA inspected. Delivered.

502.827.2497

www.harnedranchebeef.com

Oldham County:

Sherwood Farm

Belted Galloway – beef sold by individual cuts, quarters and halves. Raised on grass; diet supplemented with grain. Antibiotic, steroid and hormone free. USDA inspected. Delivered.

502-222-4326 or info@sherwoodacresbeef.com

www.sherwoodacresbeef.com

Shelby County

Todd Weber: Sells Simmental-cross by the whole, half or quarter. USDA inspected; vacuum-packed and frozen; antibiotic-, steroid-, and hormone-free. Delivered. Visits to the farm are encouraged and you can sample before you buy.

502.500.9993

Spencer County

Nathan Lawson: Sells angus by the whole, half, quarter or eighth. USDA inspected; vacuum-packed and frozen; antibiotic-, steroid-, and hormone-free, and raised with free access to grass supplemented with grain. Delivered.

502.836.3879

www.bigspringsbeef.com

Trimble County

Laraine Staples: Sells Charolais-Angus cross by the whole, half, and quarter. Also 25-pound sample packs with ground beef, sirloin, roast, round steak and New York strip. USDA inspected; antibiotic-, steroid-, and hormone-free, and raised with free access to grass supplemented with grain. Aged 21 days. Delivered.

502.255.3238

www.familyfarmproject.com